

ADP® Strategic Advisory Services

A Division of ADP Consultative Services

Expertise To Help You Design Your HCM Strategy

Managing a workforce is complex in today's business environment. ADP's Strategic Advisory Services is ready to help. With an average of 25 years of experience, our expert advisors provide insight, actionable ideas and value-added support, tailored to your needs, to help you design your Human Capital Management (HCM) strategy.

This complimentary offering is available exclusively to our enterprise clients supporting the following areas:

Change Management and Communication Strategy

Develop an approach to help your workforce understand and adapt to change

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Strategy

Identify opportunities to design and promote an inclusive culture, drive engagement, and accelerate performance

Merger and Acquisition Strategy

Facilitate a dialogue around the key considerations when undergoing organizational change

People Analytics Strategy

Help you understand and validate your data, then use it to make decisions, tell a story and shape the future of your organization

Process Optimization

Evaluate if existing process are operating efficiently and effectively, with resources put to the best possible use, without compromising quality or stakeholder satisfaction

Talent Strategy

Align and optimize technology to create a holistic strategy that attracts, retains and develops your people

Total Rewards Strategy

Provide insights to help you develop a comprehensive total rewards strategy, tailored to your business environment, industry trends and external regulatory challenges

"We've had multiple workshops with Strategic Advisory Services that were hugely beneficial, and we love learning about how similar ADP clients are tackling the same issues we may face."

- VP, Global Human Resources

For more information about how we can add value in your organization, please contact your ADP partner.